CAMBRIDGE CONCERT ORCHESTRA – playing for pleasure

The Cambridge Concert Orchestra has been making music, and making it fun, for over 40 years. Founded by Charles Shadwell, formerly of the BBC Variety Orchestra, the CCO enjoys playing a wide repertoire of light orchestral music, and is very fortunate to have its own extensive library of sheet music. This means that every concert is different, and there is always something for everyone. We can accommodate a programme that goes from The Planets Suite to Star Wars, the Barber of Seville to the Mexican Hat Dance, and many points in between. Today's concert is unusual in that we expect you will be familiar with most of the pieces! We usually try to include something from our "lucky dip" of unknown items.

The CCO has a reputation for being one of the friendliest in Cambridge, taking music into the community, whilst still striving to meet a high standard of musicianship. We never forget that the music we play is to be enjoyed, and sincerely hope you enjoy the concert.

The Orchestra owes its recent success and to its Musical Director, Suzanne Dexter-Mills: Suzanne lives and teaches in Suffolk where she directs ensembles in schools and for the Suffolk County Music Service. She conducts the South Suffolk Youth Orchestra and regularly coaches the woodwind section of the National Children's Orchestra. In addition, she finds time to play as principal clarinetist in the Wolsey Orchestra, the Churchgate Sinfonia and Churchgate Wind Octet. Suzanne has enjoyed conducting the Cambridge Concert Orchestra since 2002.

By tradition, the Mayor of Cambridge is a patron of the Orchestra, so we are particularly pleased to be playing at her invitation in the Guildhall today. We would also like to thank the Chesterton Choral Society for joining us.

CHESTERTON CHORAL SOCIETY – singing for pleasure

We are a friendly, amateur community choir of 35-40 people whose aims are 'singing choral works and light music to a good standard for the enjoyment of members and their audiences' with the emphasis firmly on enjoyment. We believe it is important to make singing as widely available as possible and membership is open to anyone interested in singing. There are no auditions. We have a wide range of musical experience and ability and, although it helps to read music, not doing so is not a bar to membership. Being able to sing in tune and in time is important though!

As our name suggests, we are based in Chesterton, and originally drew our membership primarily from that area. We still have strong local roots although members are now increasingly drawn from a much wider area.

The choir celebrated its 40th Anniversary in 2004 with a concert in St George's Chesterton (as subsequently did the Cambridge Concert Orchestra in 2007).

We generally work to a three-term programme with a concert at the end of each term. We rehearse on Monday evenings at Chesterton Methodist Church, our home base and where we give most of our concerts. In addition, the choir sometimes gives fund-raising performances for charities or sings, for example, in residential homes which is very rewarding even if we sometimes outnumber the audience.

We enjoy singing a very wide range of music old and new, including 'serious' music such as choral versions of Borodin's Polovtsian Dances and Bizet's Carmen, the Crucifixion by Stainer and Vivaldi's Gloria as well as baroque music, ballads and part songs, madrigals, folk songs, seasonal music, arrangements of 'standards' and - always popular with choir and audience - songs from the shows.

He conducted Saffron Walden Choral Society for ten years and Saffron Walden Operatic Society for three seasons. He is currently also Director of Music of Saffron Walden Town Band. For 22 years to summer 2006 he was Director of Music at St Mary's School, Cambridge where he was particularly involved in productions, including musicals that he wrote himself.

Mark Roberts has been accompanist to the Choral Society since September. Sadly, he will be leaving in the summer having completed his studies at Hills Road Sixth Form College. The hunt is on to find another accompanist. Anyone interested, please have a word with any member of the choir.

Chesterton Choral Society forthcoming events

Our Spring Sing-a-Long on Monday 19 May is an ideal opportunity for anyone interested to have a test drive - an informal and mainly light-hearted evening when you are invited to join in if you wish. There will be plenty of old favourites, some songs from the shows and more.

Summer Concert - Saturday 5 July, St George's Church, Chesterton.
 Music planned includes John Rutter's Magnificat, Brother James Air and Zadok the Priest.
